Continuation of Substance of Interview including description of the general nature of what was agreed to if an agreement was reached, or any other comments:

As per claim 1 and 17, Examiner asserts that Kocher (Col.4 Line 33-Col.5 Line 5) teaches a transaction counter C used as an index in conjunction with a previous secret key as a whole to generate a new secret key for the next session can be considered as "a first generation value indicative of a number of previous authentication code generations so that a second generation value can be generated" to meet the claim language.

No further analysis / search will be made until the formal written response is received (if any). No agreement has been reached at this time for allowance..
